Member Comment

Senator Bass would like more contact information from the President of ACES Council. He met with the Council of Presidents of the College of Business and at every single meeting from now on, they will dedicate a portion of their meetings to the discussion of upcoming ISS bills. Senator Guo addresses the body: The Commission on Senate Reform met today and spoke about shared governance. SORF meets tomorrow at 5. Senator Hill reminds the body that iLove Illinois Week is next week. The money allocated for cupcakes has gone through. He misinformed the body: when ISS allocates funds for university housing buildings, it is solely allocated to dining halls. Senator Moseloy addresses the body. There is a Black History exhibition on campus. It is from 10-6 in the Multipurpose Room A at the Ikenberry. Senator Heller addresses the body: she is looking for a CUMTD Representative (of over 40,000 students). Senator Saldivar addresses the body about CIMSA, Cultural Minority Student Affairs, a group that is working on a workshop for International Week to introduce international students to special groups like Greek Life and ISS. Ron Lewis addresses the body: he has a meeting tomorrow with tech services and university housing. Senator Lear addresses the body: the 7th Commission on Senate Reform is interested in decreasing the size of the Senate. It is noted that this is the opinion of one person on the senate. He reminds all that next

1 Friday at 5 is the deadline for submitting items for the Urbana-Champaign Senate 2 Committee.

3 Officer Announcements

4 Vice President Baldwin says that she missed the IA Meeting and Senator Lear chaired it.
5 There was an informal discussion because quorum was not met. She met with Marissa 6 McCord, the point person on Illinois Connection who is doing Lobby Day on April 9.

7 There is a list of in-state meetings for District Legislators. Vice President Ash states that 8 things are going well with the Engineering Open House and the PR Committee.

9 President Bolden addresses the body. There will be an election for a new treasurer one 10 week from today.

11 Resolutions for Action

12 b.FA.2014.22 Teaching Excellence Awards

13 Senator Bass addresses the body. Invitation boxes, photo books, men & catering, 14 plaques, and miscellaneous will cost a total of $2,558.85. Heller moves to add flowers 15 for $200 to the budget. It is seconded. The miscellaneous will include shipping for photo 16 books and set up charge of printing of plaques. Advisor Kirts addresses the body: this 17 must be amended to be more specific by listing the number of people being fed, the name
18 of a vendor, etc. Senator Heller moves the following changes: breakdown cost of table 19 cloths, service charge, student group, discount, and flowers. The new total is $2,758. It 20 is seconded and motioned to amend. In a vote of 16-2-7, it passes. Advisor Kirts makes 21 the body aware that this more than a thousand dollars more than what the body spent last 22 year. Senator Lear would like 'plates' added next to 'catering' and add 'postage' 23 underneath miscellaneous. Debate is ended and in a vote of 15-3-8, it passes.

24 b. IA.2014.11 Referendum Question: Support of Illinois Student Government

25 Constitution - Senator Lear is accepting questions about this. Senator Bass would like to 26 know how many additional seats that would be added. Lear says that 54 seats will be 27 added, expanding the size of ISS to about 100 seats. Senator Moseley would like to 28 know if Lear worked on this by himself. Lear says that the most recent draft's history 29 included Mitch Dickey, Mo Johnson, Kevin Seymour, and mostly Lear himself. They 30 came voluntarily. Moseley would like this to be struck down because it 'adds more red 31 tape...some of it makes no sense for a student government.' Lear states that we attend
32 ABTS every year to work with other student governments and graduate students have no 33 part in that. We are one of the few student bodies in the world that have what we do. We 34 have a judiciary right now that does not wish to hear trial cases. As a government, we 35 need someone to rule on this, someone who is not invested in the process. Senator 36 Ostrowski asserts that the Constitution is about 75 pages long and the idea that the body 37 be educated enough to read this is 'fantastical.' Senator Bass addresses the body: we 38 cannot get everyone to attend the meeting every week. If 100 seats were added, it would 39 be difficult to get that many individuals here. He reaffirms that this constitution is not 40 garbage. A discussion about this constitution must be debated over a period of time.
41 Lear expresses his wishes for the body to be behind this Constitution. The 80 pages are 42 the result of the body's previous request to have "background information" on the 43 Constitution. Senator Moseley would like Lear to go back and address senators from other colleges seeking out information. Senator Hill addresses the body: this altogether must have taken Senator Lear a great deal of work. There are great ideas in it but there are so many different disagreements with it so he will probably vote against it. He cannot imagine, with the difficulty of establishing quorum with 54 senators, establishing quorum with 100 senators. Senator Guo inquires further after the contents of the constitution. Would this current assembly be able to make changes to this if it is passed? Lear says that no, because there will be new members. He would vote yes because he wants the students to vote on it. Guo would like each senator to gather up his/her students to vote on it. Senator Heller addresses the body: If Senator Lear keeps on saying that he has been working on it for two years, why did it not appear earlier on for the body to debate on it? It is very telling that only one person is answering all of these questions, not a collaborative effort. She urges the body to vote no. Senator Siegel addresses the body: this vote is only to lower the threshold. We should be bringing more people into the Constitution. Students are going to ask questions about it. Vote no and keep it at the normal threshold. Lear is unsure as to if students will ask informed questions about this. Senator Bass addresses the body: he himself has reached out to over 200 groups recently. He believes that this is useful for the future but we have not been given enough time to debate it. Is it a consensus that we have met to pass it? It is moved to end debate and in a vote of 10-11-6, this resolution fails. Baldwin thanks Lear for working on this resolution.

Resolutions for Information

a. Big 10 on the Hill Booklets – Senator Hill addresses the body. The ABTS resolution to charge the university around $100 to fund the creation of booklets for policymakers in Washington, D.C. will be voted upon. This is referred to Financial Affairs.

b. RSO Electronic Advertisements Senator Grubczak addresses the body. Student Senate would pay for advertisements in places like The Ike in order to utilize funds. This is referred to Financial Affairs.

c. Recognition for Teaching Excellence, 2013-2014 – Senator Heller addresses the body. This resolution lists the name of nominees of the award. This is referred to Academic Affairs.

d. Student Trustee Debate - Traditionally, Student Senate funds a debate for trustee. $76 will be allocated to cookies, iced water, and lemonade. This is referred to Financial Affairs. The master of ceremonies has yet to be decided but it will be held in the Union. Advisor Kirts states that a late charge will need to be added for catering. This is referred to Financial Affairs.

e. Committee on Campus Affairs - *Know Your Rights – Senator Saldivar addresses the body: A Know Your Rights plastic card will be distributed to students. This would cost $1106. The distribution plan has not been ironed out yet.

Adjournment

It was moved and seconded to adjourn the meeting. Carey Ash adjourns at 8:40 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,

Whereas, gender confirmation surgery has in certain cases been found necessary for the physical, psychological, social, and academic well-being of many trans* students,

Whereas, gender confirmation surgery is costly and would require insurance coverage for most students to receive it,

Whereas, the student health insurance plan at the University of Illinois at Chicago covers gender confirmation surgery<sup>1</sup>,

Whereas, the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign has been a leading advocate for trans* inclusion in higher education,

Whereas, the Association of Big Ten Students, as the representative voice of the Big Ten student bodies, unanimously passed the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign's resolution pledging to "reach out and listen to the concerns of the trans* communities of each institution in the conference,"

Whereas, the Association of Big Ten Students represents over 500,000 students throughout the United States,

Whereas, the Illinois Student Senate, as the official voice of the student body, passed CA.2014.04, 'Statement in Favor of Trans* Inclusive Illinois' which "favors a student effort to make the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign a trans* inclusive campus<sup>2</sup>" with a vote of 22-3-4,

Reaffirming Senate Resolution CGA.2014.01 regarding Student Trustee Eligibility

Whereas, on October 16, 2013, the Illinois Student Senate passed CGA.2014.01 regarding Student Trustee Eligibility by vote of 17-4-4, and

Whereas, the Student Senate therein articulated fundamental principles regarding Student Trustee eligibility which are:

1. That the question of who is eligible to serve on the Board of Trustees is a matter of the highest public concern;
2. That public service to our University is not premised on the amount of money one “pays-to-play,” but instead on the genuine possession of a servant’s heart and a sincere dedication to the advancing the Student Body;
3. That the adoption of any policy, or continuing in any established practice, that is contrary to these principles as expressed above, including tuition restrictions on student trustee eligibility, violates fundamental notions of equality and fairness, and are therefore unacceptable and rejected by the Students of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, and

Whereas, HB 4284 was filed by Representative Naomi Jakobsson in direct response to our Student Trustee Eligibility Resolution, and

Whereas, HB 4284 will restore equality between the Students of our Campus by ending the discrimination on the basis of tuition and fees in determining students’ eligibility to serve on the Board of Trustees and,

Whereas, the Illinois Student Senate is aware that judicial review has declared moot cases pertaining to Student Trustee eligibility on grounds that our elections are completed too swiftly for the full measure of review to be provided,<sup>3</sup> and

Whereas, such judicial declarations form the basis of the University’s opposition to HB 4284 in direct opposition to our expression in the Student Trustee Eligibility Resolution,

Therefore, be it firmly resolved that the Illinois Student Senate, the Official Voice of the Student Body at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, is both steadfast and unyielding in its position that the tuition requirement for determining the eligibility of student service on the Board of Trustees abhorrently discriminates between students seeking to hold the office and effectively denies the Student Body the most direct representation on the Board of Trustees, thereby precluding the equal and fair representation of the Student Body at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, and

Be it finally resolved, that the General Assembly is vehemently urged to stand with the Students of the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign in adopting HB 4284, and that Representative Jakobsson be formally thanked for her courageous support in heeding the voice of the Student Body in this regard.
